The Chair asks, "Is there any objection to ______?" If there is no objection, the Chair announces the result by saying, "There being no objection, ______ will be done" or "_______ is approved by unanimous consent."

If one member objects to action being taken in this manner by promptly calling out "objection" from where she or he is seated, the vote must be put formally.

No member should hesitate to object if he feels it is desirable to do so, but he should not object merely for dilatory purposes.

USE OF "STAND AT EASE"
During the National Council Session, the presiding officer may ask the assembly to "stand at ease." This simply permits a brief pause without the declaration of a recess.

In such a case, there is technically no interruption of the meeting, and members remain in their places. Quiet conversation among neighboring members may take place, but it must cease immediately when the Chair declares the meeting again in order or any member objects to continuing to stand at ease.

Common ways of amending a motion:
- By inserting consecutive words (or a paragraph). Specify the exact location where the words are to be inserted (by adding words or a paragraph if at the end of the motion).
- By striking out consecutive words (or striking out a paragraph).
- By striking out and inserting consecutive words. There are two types: words are struck out and different wording is inserted in their place OR words are struck out from one place and inserted in a different place (substitute if an entire section or article is involved, or a complete main motion).

USE OF PARLIAMENTARY AIDES

Parliamentary Aides will be stationed at the interrupting microphone to ensure that the microphone is used for the proper purpose. Their responsibility will be to assist the presiding officer by reviewing all motions or requests submitted on "Floor Speaker Identification Forms" (motions) by members of the National Council seeking recognition at the "interrupting" microphone. (See p. 27 for sample form.) Their review will help to ensure that motions/requests brought to that microphone:

- May legitimately interrupt proceedings.
- Do not repeat the same specific request addressed earlier in the same meeting.
- Do not qualify as debate.

PARLIAMENTARY AIDES FLOWCHART

Step A National Council member approaches microphone #10 and submits filled-out "Floor Speaker Identification Form" (FSIF) to Parliamentary Aides for review.

Step B Parliamentary Aides determine answers to following questions:

Question 1 May the motion/request (on FSIF) interrupt proceedings?
- If answer is Yes—GO TO QUESTION 2.
- If answer is No—Ask one further question:
  - Is it a matter for ushers?
    - If YES—send FSIF to ushers.
    - If NO—return FSIF to originator.

Question 2 Does the motion/request (on FSIF) repeat a specific request made earlier in the same meeting?
- If answer is Yes—Return FSIF to originator.
- If answer is No—GO TO QUESTION 3.

Question 3 Is the motion/request used to "debate"?
- If answer is Yes—Return FSIF to originator.
- If answer is No—FSIF goes to Motion Clearance Table.
MICROPHONE SIGN

When a secondary motion that is debatable (for example, an amendment) is made, persons at every microphone step aside and remain in line. Those persons wishing to speak to the secondary motion approach the microphones. A neon pink sign is put at the next microphone in numerical order to indicate where debate on the main motion will continue.

When debate on the secondary motion is concluded, the original lines re-form at the microphones and the Chair then calls on the speaker at the microphone with the sign.

ASSIGNED MICROPHONE PERSONNEL

A team of microphone attendants, known as the Microphone Operations Team, will be assigned to microphones 2–10 to ensure that the microphones are functioning properly, to collect “Floor Speaker Identification Forms,” and to transmit motion forms to the personnel at the Motion Clearance Table. A microphone watcher will be assigned to assist the Chair on stage for each meeting.

USE OF OPEN FORUMS

Open Forums will be held to answer questions about proposals. An Open Forum is not a time for National Council members to state their positions on a proposal. That must be done in formal debate once the proposal is on the floor during the business meeting. The Open Forum is an opportunity to ask for clarification about any aspect of the proposal that may be unclear or to ask for further information that a member of the National Council needs before making a decision to vote for or against the proposal.

When the Chair declares the microphones open, National Council members may come to microphones 2–9 to ask their questions. Microphones will be called on in order, beginning with microphone 2. The Chair will announce the allotted time prior to each Open Forum.

These Open Forums are being continued in response to concerns about overuse of the “interrupting” microphone at prior National Council Sessions. It is hoped that by answering “point of information” questions in advance, there will be more substantive debate once a proposal has been placed before the membership body for consideration.
2005 NATIONAL COUNCIL SESSION
ACTION ITEMS

REQUIRED ACTION ITEMS
At the first business meeting on Saturday, October 8, 2005, the National Council will take action on:

- Adoption of standing rules for the Session.
- Adoption of the program, which is the proposed schedule of proceedings and the order of business. In addition to business developed by the National Council Agenda Committee and approved by the National Board of Directors, the schedule includes times for events outside of business meetings.

   (2) May not be distributed during business meetings.
   (3) Will be placed on the seats in the delegate section by the ushers at a time when the National Council is not in session, and at a time following the opening ceremony.
   (4) Must be in the same format and length as those printed in the Workbook.
E. No write-in votes shall be allowed.
F. In reporting the results of the election, the number of actual votes received will not be reported to the assembly; the only information that will be reported is that a candidate received at least a majority vote. C. Delegates may take their portable electronic voting devices with them when they are standing in line awaiting their turn to speak. Delegates may vote on any secondary motion while standing in line at the microphone. Delegates must return to their seats for any vote on a main motion/proposal and for elections.
6. MINUTES
The National Board of Directors of GSUSA shall serve as the National Council Minutes Approval Committee and shall be empowered to approve and distribute the minutes of the National Council Session.

7. COMFORT ISSUES
A. Comfort and personal needs issues of the attendees shall be addressed to the ushers, not to the presiding officer. If addressed to the presiding officer, the remarks will be ruled out of order. (See p. 16.)

RATIONALE
- Benchmarking studies of the best practices of other national nonprofit organizations support this two-term limit.
- GSUSA’s records reflect that a maximum of two consecutive terms for the office of President is usual since the early years of the Movement.
- A two-term limit promotes the integrity of the office.
- A two-term limit integrates with the direction of the Movement.
- GSUSA suggests this practice to councils in its monograph series.

INFORMATION REGARDING TITLES OF OFFICERS
In October 2002, the National Council adopted a constitutional amendment to Article XI, Section 1, clarifying that the title “Chair of the National Board of Directors” is a working title for an individual while serving in the office of President. The title “Vice Chair” is a working title for an individual while serving in the office of Vice President. Applicable laws compel nonprofit organizations to have titles denominated as President and Secretary. Hence, for legal and contractual purposes, these names remain.

RATIONALE

History
In 1957, the National Council adopted a revised Constitution that set the size of the National Board at 70. Since that time, the Board has been reduced three times (actions taken in 1966-1967, 1978, and 1996).

- 70 members in 1957
- 64 members in 1966-1967
- 50/51 members* in 1978
- 40/41 members* in 1996

*The Chair of the National Nominating Committee would assume membership on the National Board if not already a member.

Current State
As a result of National Council action in 1996, the current National Board of 40/41 members has operated since the time of the 1999 election with a range of standing committees, subcommittees, steering groups, and task groups.

- Governance research does not point to a “one size fits all” approach and suggests boards consider the number of people it takes to effectively manage and complete its work.
- National nonprofit boards range from 18 to 52 members. The size of boards is determined by the board/committee structure. Members of the National Board recommend the reduction in its size for the following reasons.

A reduction in the size of the Board would:
- Increase efficiency/productivity.
- Reduce costs.
- Allow non-Board members to participate (brings in potential members to the Movement).
- Capitalize better on Board members’ skills and talents.
- Increase Board responsiveness and the effectiveness of deliberation.

RECOMMENDATION
The National Board of Directors recommends adoption.
PROPOSAL 3: AMENDMENT OF PREAMBLE TO THE CONSTITUTION

The following is for reference only and is not part of Proposal 3:

RATIONALE

Promise and Law: It should be noted that no changes are being made to the Girl Scout Promise and Law. Rather, the first element of the proposed wording emphasizes the Promise and Law as the foundation of our Movement. It is important to view the Promise and Law in conjunction with the Mission Statement. For example, while the word “patriotism” is not found in the proposed Mission Statement, it remains a vital element of the Girl Scout Promise and is also emphasized in a new section of the Preamble (Patriotism, Citizen, and Community Service).

Mission: The updated Mission Statement says who we are, and says it in more contemporary language (and more clearly). Few Girl Scouts today know our Mission Statement. Many don’t even know we have one. The mark of a good Mission Statement is that it evokes our spirit and is easy to learn. Our team worked for months on capturing Girl Scouting’s unique essence: that girls get personal strength and give it back to their communities and the world.

Spiritual force: We affirm that the guiding force in our Movement is a spiritual one and that we value individuals’ diverse spiritual beliefs.
Open Membership: We clearly state that we are a membership organization with the right to set requirements for membership, such as appropriate age, payment of dues, and acceptance of the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

Patriotism, Citizenship, and Community Service: We reinforce our commitment to civic duty and service to our country and the world.

Diversity and Pluralism (new): The new language formally states our commitment to diversity.

Responsibility for the Movement and the democratic process: We affirm that when we make decisions about our Movement's future, we seek and hear our members' voices: girls, volunteers, and staff. Though the wording has changed from "volunteer" to "member," the primary adult voice is still that of the volunteers, who are 99 percent of the adults in our Movement. The more inclusive term "member" reflects our strategy to be more girl-centric and better able to hear girls' voices. We also affirm that our democratic process must be nimble and decisive.

Girl/Adult Partnership: We emphasize the volunteer-girl partnership: volunteers are essential as role models who interact dynamically with girls; enthusiastic and well-trained volunteers, dedicated to girls' well-being, are the key to making Girl Scouting the world's best organization for girls.

The following subjects, which are currently addressed in the Preamble, receive emphasis by giving them their own sections:

WAGGGS. By highlighting our relationship with WAGGGS, we differentiate Girl Scouting from other girl-serving organizations and we recognize that girls are growing up in, and must prepare to lead in, a global society.

Community Partners. Girl Scouting is a community leader; and we serve girls best by partnering with other community organizations.

And we have added one new section:

Voice. We see Girl Scouts as an expert on girls' growth and development, and as this nation's voice of girls and for girls. Girls make a difference and their voices are heard. We believe it is essential to continue creating opportunities for girls to engage in issues affecting their lives.

RECOMMENDATION
The National Board of Directors recommends adoption.
PROPOSAL 4: CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT OF ARTICLE III

To amend Article III of the Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA ("The Girl Scout Program") by substitution as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>CURRENT WORDING</th>

<td>The Girl Scout program is an informal educational program designed to help girls put into practice the fundamental principles of the Girl Scout Movement as set forth in the Preamble. It is carried out in small groups with adult leadership and provides a wide range of activities developed around the interests and needs of girls.</td>
<td>Grounded in the Girl Scout Promise and Law, Girl Scouting is a nonformal, experiential, and cooperative education program that promotes girls' personal growth and leadership development. Partnering with caring adults, girls design fun and challenging activities that empower them and raise their voices within a local, national, and global sisterhood.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

RATIONALE
Building on the updated wording of the Preamble, this proposal represents an opportunity to clearly differentiate Girl Scouting from other programs for girls by highlighting the attributes that make it unique. There is an increased emphasis on local, national, and global sisterhood. Words such as "personal growth," "leadership," and "service" powerfully spell out the core elements of our program and our desired impact on girls' lives. This language also clarifies the identity of our brand and is more in line with what both our research and the feedback from councils tell us are the most significant aspects of Girl Scouting today—a fun, safe, challenging, and girls-only environment that promotes friendship, partnership with adults, empowerment, and action.

The Girl Scout experience is based on sound educational methodology and theory. Important definitions include:

1. Nonformal education. Nonformal education uses intentional learning activities that enable the learner to actively participate in directing her own learning. As such, nonformal education is well suited to the development of life skills and building character. Nonformal education complements formal education (schools) and informal education (media/family).

2. Experiential learning. Experiential learning occurs when a person engages in some activity, looks back at the activity critically, abstracts some useful insight from the evaluation, and puts the results to work through a change in behavior. Through the experiential learning process, participants share ideas and gain a fuller meaning from each experience, and then they apply that learning to future experiences. The opportunity for reflection, evaluation, and sharing observations is equally important to the participants' growth as the planning and experiencing of an activity.

3. Cooperative learning. Cooperative learning involves learners working in groups to discuss, debate, discover, practice, and teach. The educational process provides a wide range of activities developed around the interests and needs of participants. Cooperative learning is designed to promote the sharing of knowledge, skills, and learning in an atmosphere of respect and cooperation. In Girl Scouting, cooperative learning has facilitated the use of the democratic process for planning and decision-making within a group to ensure that every girl can participate fully.

RATIONALE

Since 1957, the size of the National Board has been reduced three times from 70 members to its current size of 40/41 members. However, during this same period, the size of the National Nominating Committee has remained the same: 9 members. It is proposed that the National Council consider reducing the size of the National Nominating Committee in alignment with a smaller National Board.

- While a large committee would have been required to prepare a slate totaling 70 members, requirements have changed over time. With a proposed reduction in the National Board size to 30/31, the workload of the National Nominating Committee will be affected, and a larger National Nominating Committee will not be necessary to accomplish its work.
- A theme throughout the 2002-2005 triennium has been to streamline organizational ways of work. A smaller National Nominating Committee is consistent with this goal.
- An article on nominating committees, "Building the Best Board," which appeared in the January 2005 issue of Association Management (published by the American Society of Association Executives) recommends the following as a guide to better governance: "Ideally, no more than six to eight individuals are charged with the nominations process, and their qualities reflect those sought for effective board members."
- A GSUSA benchmarking report on national nonprofit boards states that three other national not-for-profit organizations have followed the trend toward smaller governance committees: National 4H, Camp Fire USA, and Girls, Inc.
- Improvements in technology, such as the use of teleconferences and e-mail, will continue to allow the National Nominating Committee to conduct its work more flexibly, efficiently, and speedily.

The National Board of Directors recommends adoption.
Dear National Council Member:

The National Nominating Committee, elected by and responsible to the National Council, is pleased to present the slate of nominees for the National Board of Directors and the National Nominating Committee. The slate meets the Constitutional requirements outlined in Articles X, XI, and XII of the Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA (see Blue Book of Basic Documents, 2003 edition, pp. 11-13.)

A broad range of factors reflecting the selection criteria set forth in the "Policies" section of the Blue Book (see "Selection of Adults," p. 22) were considered in putting together the slate. The nominees possess a wide range of skills and experience, and represent the diversity of our nation in race, ethnicity, religion, age, and geographical location. The National Nominating Committee believes that these nominees possess the best talent and commitment necessary to lead and govern the Girl Scout Movement in the next triennium.

According to Article XII, Section 3, of the Constitution, "Nominations may be made from the floor at any regular session of the National Council provided that notice of such nominations and written consent of the nominee(s) are presented to the President at least two days prior to the election." At this National Council Session, elections will be held on Sunday, October 9, during Meeting IV, which begins at 2:00 p.m. Therefore, to make a nomination from the floor, Cynthia Thompson, the Chair of the National Board of Directors, must have been notified of your intentions no later than 2:00 p.m. on Friday, October 7. Such notice may be sent to her at national headquarters for arrival prior to Wednesday, October 5, or may be delivered to the on-site Office of the National Board of Directors in Atlanta no later than 2:00 p.m. on Friday, October 7.

The National Nominating Committee wishes to thank everyone who participated in the democratic process by identifying prospective talent, sending in referrals, and giving input at focus group meetings.

We thank you, the members of the National Council, for the privilege of serving you and the Girl Scout Movement.

For the National Nominating Committee,
